Pregnancy and Beyond

Resource Guide

Support at each stage of pregnancy and delivery

A healthy pregnancy is a team effort. You took an important step to make informed decisions about your health care by joining Healthy Blue. While you are on your pregnancy journey, this guide can teach you about plan benefits and resources to support your well-being. You are not going through this alone. We are ready to answer any questions you may have along the way. You can call our Customer Care Center team or 24-Hour Nurseline at any time, day or night.

Here are a few steps to take as you prepare to welcome your baby into the world:

To stay healthy in your pregnancy, set up a visit with your OB provider

An obstetrical provider (OB) is a medical expert in pregnancy care. You will see this doctor for prenatal visits during your pregnancy and after you give birth. When you visit your OB, they'll work with you to determine your health risks. Your OB will help you set up the appointments you need to monitor you and your baby throughout pregnancy.

During your visits, your OB can answer your questions about pregnancy and delivery, including topics such as:

- Foods to eat or avoid
- Safe exercises
- Medicines
- Birth options
- Mood changes
- Feeding
- Family planning

To keep your benefits, tell Healthy Connections you're pregnant

Extra support

You can receive one-on-one support with a nurse who learns about your personal health needs and pregnancy through our case management program. Your OB case manager can help you set up health visits, find community resources, and partner with you to make informed decisions before and after you deliver.

Substance use and pregnancy

There is no safe amount of alcohol, tobacco, or drugs to use when you are pregnant. Your OB's priority is to make sure both you and your baby are healthy. We encourage you to talk openly with your OB about the substances you are taking. They can work with you to make a safe plan to stop using alcohol, tobacco, and drugs that can harm you and your baby.

Helpful resources:

- National Smoking Quitline: This toll-free number is run by the National Cancer Institute. It connects you to services to help you quit smoking or quit using other tobacco products. Call 24/7 at 800-784-8669 (TTY 711).

- Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services (SAMHSA) National Helpline: This free helpline offers treatment referral for people facing mental health or substance use problems. You can call SAMHSA 24/7 at 800-662-4357 (TTY 711).

It is helpful to find a provider (pediatrician) you trust for your baby before you deliver. You can use the Find a Doctor tool on the Healthy Blue website to search for one.

Your birth plan

A birth plan helps make sure your choices are respected during labor and delivery. Your birth plan describes what you want to the doctor and nurses who help deliver your baby. It can include the types of medicine you do or do not want to take, who you want to be in the room with you when you have your baby, and any religious or cultural practices you follow.

Making a birth plan can help you feel better prepared for labor and delivery.

Below are questions to answer to start your birth plan:

Where do you want to have your baby?

Do you want skin-to-skin contact with your baby within an hour of birth (recommended)?

Who do you want in the room with you during labor and delivery?

Are there any traditions you want for your baby's birth?

Who do you want to cut the umbilical cord?

For a sample birth plan, go to marchofdimmes.org, go to Health Topics, and visit the Labor and Delivery section.

Caring for yourself and your baby

In your follow-up visit with your OB after your baby's birth, they will make sure your body is healing and help you adjust to life with a newborn. It's best to see them within 1 to 3 weeks, but no later than 12 weeks after delivery. Your provider may want to see you sooner than three weeks if you had a high-risk pregnancy or delivered by C-section.

You can earn Healthy Rewards for going to this postpartum visit!

If your Medicaid coverage will end after your baby's birth, plan your postpartum visit before you lose coverage. You can call Healthy Connections at 877-552-4642 (TTY 877-552-4670) to ask about keeping your coverage.

With My Advocate, you can receive tips from MaryBeth or online to help you with self-care, recovery, stress management, and support with parenting.

Well-baby care

Your baby's PCP can provide the best care by working closely with you. For the first year of life, the American Academy of Pediatrics suggests your baby have a checkup at birth, 3 to 5 days old, and at 1, 2, 4, 6, 9, 12, 15, 18, 24, and 30 months old.<sup>1</sup>

You may earn Healthy Rewards for taking your baby to their health visits! Log in to your Benefit Reward Hub at HealthyBlueSC.com or call 888-990-8681 (TTY 711) to see if you qualify.

With My Advocate, MaryBeth will teach you about vaccines (shots) and your baby's well-child visits.

Neonatal intensive care unit

The neonatal intensive care unit (NICU) is a unit in the hospital for babies who need special care after birth. If your baby is premature at birth or you had a high-risk pregnancy, your baby may need to stay in the NICU. A team of trained providers will work with your baby to help them fully recover.

You can trust your case manager in our NICU Case Management program to support you while your baby is in the NICU. We are committed to making sure all of our high-risk infants have a detailed plan for care in the NICU and a safe transition home. If you have any questions about the NICU Case Management program, please call the Customer Care Center for help.

Postpartum depression

Postpartum depression (PPD) is common and treatable.

According to the CDC, about 1 in 8 women experience symptoms of postpartum depression.<sup>2</sup>

---

You may be experiencing PPD if you:

- Feel anxious or depressed most of the day every day.
- Have trouble bonding with your baby.
- Do not feel better two weeks after giving birth.

By asking for help, you are taking the first step to heal. Your provider can make a support plan for you if you are willing to share how you feel. Your emotional well-being is just as important as your physical health.

Helpful resources:

- Postpartum Support International: Visit postpartum.net or call 800-944-4773 (TTY 711) 24/7 and follow the prompts to be connected with someone.

Family planning

If you want to have another baby, you should talk to your provider before you try to become pregnant again. Having a pregnancy too soon after you give birth may cause your next pregnancy to be high-risk for an early delivery or preterm birth. It's best to wait at least 18 months between pregnancies. Your body needs proper time to heal and recover.<sup>3</sup>

Until you are ready for another pregnancy, you can choose from many birth control options. The long-acting reversible birth control (LARC) is one method to avoid pregnancy. LARC is a device that your provider places inside your arm or uterus. It stays in place until you want it taken out. Talk with your provider about the best options for you and how they may affect your body. 24-Hour Nurseline can answer any questions you have about the method you choose. You should call the Customer Care Center to ask about your benefits for birth control.

If you have any health conditions or take any medicines, you should also talk to your provider about how they can affect your next pregnancy. They may suggest you take a prenatal vitamin with folic acid before you become pregnant to protect your baby's health.<sup>4</sup>

You can read about family planning at cdc.gov by searching “preconception.”

You also can search “contraception” for birth control methods.
